Undergraduate and Transfer Student Audition Requirements

Select and prepare music that will best demonstrate your proficiency on as many (at least two and no more than five) of the percussion instruments you feel comfortable with. Sample repertoire might include:

- Concert Snare Drum:
 - An etude from one of the following collections:
 - Portraits in Rhythm by Anthony Cirone
 - Douze Etudes pour Caisse-Claire by Jacques Delecluse
 - An appropriate published snare solo from a state Bandmasters list
 - Please remember to select material that demonstrates your ability with rolls, ornaments, rhythm, and dynamics.
- Rudimental Snare Drum:
 - A published solo from:
 - Ziggadabuzz, a collection published by Pro-Mark
 - Rudimental Cookbook by Edward Freytag
 - A published snare solo from a state Bandmasters list
 - Please remember to select material that demonstrates your ability with a variety of rudiments, rhythm, and dynamics.
- Keyboard Percussion:
 - Two Mallets:
 - An etude from the Modern School for Xylophone, Marimba and Vibraphone by Morris Goldenberg
 - A xylophone ragtime by G.H. Green or Harry Breuer
 - A Violin Partita or Sonata by J.S. Bach
 - An appropriate published two mallet solo from a state Bandmasters list.
 - Four Mallets:
 - An etude from Four Mallet Marimba Playing by Nancy Zeltsman
 - A published four-mallet solo from a state Bandmasters list or that your teacher recommends
 - Please remember to select material that demonstrates your ability with rolls, expression, coordination, independence, rhythm, and dynamics.
- Timpani:
 - An etude from:
 - Exercises, Etudes, and Solos for the Timpani by Raynor Carroll
 - The Solo Timpanist by Vic Firth
 - Modern Method for Timpani by Saul Goodman
 - Pedal to the Kettle by Kirk Gay
 - An appropriate published timpani solo from a state Bandmasters list.
 - Please remember to select material that demonstrates your ability with expression, tuning, rhythm, and dynamics.
- Drum Set:
 - A play along solo from:
 - Contemporary Drummer +1 by Dave Weckl
 - Percussion Recital Series-Drum Set by Steve Houghton
 - Be prepared to demonstrate styles (Rock, Funk, Latin, Swing, etc...) and trade 4's (solo/time) with yourself
- Multiple Percussion:
 - Any published multiple percussion solo from a state Bandmasters list
 - Please remember to select material that demonstrates your ability with expression, coordination, independence, rhythm, and dynamics
 - Logistically, this is the toughest solo to do at an audition and advanced notification may be required. We encourage you to perform solos in the other categories, as this category tends to challenge our audition schedule

Graduate Student Audition Requirements

Select and prepare music that will best demonstrate your proficiency on as many of the percussion instruments you feel comfortable with. Sample repertoire might include:

- Snare Drum:
 - One concert-style solo from one of the following books:
 - Twelve Studies for Snare Drum by Jaques Delecluse
 - Advanced Studies for Snare Drum by Mitchell Peters
 - Advanced Etudes for Snare Drum by Keith Aleo
 - In addition, prospective graduate students should also choose two excerpts from the standard orchestral repertoire. These may include, but are not limited to:
 - Scheherazade (Mvt. III and IV) by Rimsky-Korsakov
 - Lt. Kije Suite by Prokofiev
 - Symphony No. 10 by Shostakovich
- Keyboard Percussion:
 - One four-mallet work for marimba. Appropriate selections would include, but are not limited to:
 - Beads of Glass by Gordon Stout
 - Mirage by Yasuo Seuyoshi
 - Burritt Variations by Alejandro Vinao
 - In addition, prospective graduate students should also choose two excerpts from the standard orchestra repertoire. These may include, but are not limited to:
 - Porgy and Bess by Gershwin
 - Overture to Colas Breugnon by Kabalevsky
 - Polka from the Golden Age Ballet by Shostakovich
- Timpani:
 - One appropriate solo or etude. Selections may include but are not limited to:
 - Eight Pieces for Four Timpani by Elliot Carter
 - Raga No. 1 by William Cahn
 - In addition, prospective graduate students should also choose one excerpt from the orchestral repertoire of Beethoven or Tchaikovsky.

In the audition, you can expect to:

- Perform your prepared pieces. Be prepared to stop, as we may not need to hear the entire selection.
- Sight-read on snare drum and two-mallet marimba.
- Be asked to demonstrate your knowledge of major and minor scales, modes, and common chord arpeggios.
- Be asked to demonstrate different snare drum rudiments. You may be asked to tune the timpani and/or sing back pitches or intervals.
- Be asked to complete a basic aural diagnostic examination, which includes matching pitch and sight singing short melodic phrases.

Please feel free to ask questions about the program and facilities, as we will be having a tour of the percussion facilities and a program overview at the time of the audition.
